Consolidated Not Sold

The statement has been made by some of the daily papers to the effect that the mill of the Consolidated Water Power and Paper Co. of this city had sold out to the International Paper Co.

During an interview with Mr. Mead on Tuesday that gentleman stated that such was not the case. That the Consolidated people had not considered any proposition for the purpose of selling and that it was not the intention of the company to do so.

While it is known that other mills in this vicinity have been considering propositions from some concern which wanted to buy them, it is not known whether they have sold or intend to sell. Along this line, the following dispatch from Appleton may be of interest, altho it cannot be said as to how much truth there is in the matter.

According to reports in circulation here, the involuntary dissolution of the General Paper company was the indirect cause of the merger of the paper and pulp mills of the Middle West.

It is generally believed the members of the former alleged paper trust were the first to take the matter of the merger on, and that being unable to agree among themselves the International Paper company was appealed to.

This belief is strengthened by the fact that options are said to have been secured on all but two of the plants of the former so-called trust, and one of them is now said to be clamoring for admission to the International Paper company.

The International Paper company now owns thirty mills in the East with a combined capacity of 3,400,000 pounds of paper per day, or 1,700 tons of paper every twenty four hours. The average price of the paper is 3 cents per pound, or 600 per ton, which makes the output of the mills now owned by the company in the East $203,000 worth per day.

The mills in the West on which options are said to have been secured have a capacity of 2,485,000 pounds of paper, or 1,243 tons per day, which at an average of 3 cents per pound, or 600 per ton, makes the paper manufacture in the Western mills worth $74,580 per day.

Added to this, the Western mills have a capacity of 628 tons of sulphate per day worth $45 per ton, or $28,360 per day, and 950 tons of ground wood pulp per day, worth $20 per ton, or $19,000.

Thus the total earning capacity of the mills of the West, which are to be taken into the merger, is $128,940 every twenty-four hours, and when the merger is completed and the International Paper company owns the mills of both East and West, this gigantic corporation will have an earning capacity of $228,940 per day.

BERLIN SHUT OUT

Game on Sunday Results in Score of 2 to 0 in Favor of Home Team

Lovers of base-ball witnessed a good game on Sunday when the Berlin boys and the Tigers met together. The hitting was not very heavy on either side, and quite a number of men were struck out on both sides, but it was an interesting contest, just the same, one of the best that has been played on the local grounds.

Boyers pitched for the Tigers, and while he was a trifle wild at times, he threw a good game and was there with the goods at the most critical points. He was ably supported by McConnell behind the bat. Anderson at second base also played a good game, notwithstanding the fact that he is still suffering from a sprained ankle, which handicaps him somewhat. Dulin held down third base with his usual steadiness, as did Wockler at short. The fielders had little to do as there was a heavy wind blowing and very few balls got out into their territory.

It was a whitewash on both sides until the last half of the eighth inning when a hit, combined with an error on the part of Berlin allowed two runs to come in. Several times Berlin had a man on third base, but each time he was prevented from scoring by a very narrow margin. The boys played as steady a game as one could wish to see by an amateur team and a large crowd of spectators was delighted by the exhibition.

Grand Rapids Athletics Win at Neeshah.

The Athletics went to Neeshah Sunday and took the second game of the season, altho the boys had little hopes of winning up to the fourth inning the score standing 6 to 0 in Neeshah's favor, the Neeshah twirler having 7 strike outs to his credit. But things changed. After two were out in the fourth inning the Athletics got 5 two baggers in succession. Most of them would have been good for home runs or 3 bases but for the ground rules, they could only take 2 bases on a ball hit over the fence. Three out of the five two base hits were over the fence. Neeshah had a strong line up, having all but two batted men. The game was marked by wild throwing, errors and sensational catches.

Greenberg started the twirling for Neeshah and did fine work up to the fourth inning when the Rapids boys got to batting, then he gave up to Loomis of Mauston. Palmer was on the firing line for the Athletics and did fine work.

Foresters at Neeshah.

The Catholic Foresters went to Neeshah on Sunday and played a game with the Forester team of that city, the game resulting in a victory for the Neeshah boys by a score of 14 to 9. The game was a spirited one and greatly enjoyed by the spectators. The team from this city was composed of Nash, Brennan, Link, Beaver, Grund, Nimitz, Corcoran, Meyer and Bruiser.

Advise Holding Potatoes.

Thos. Emmerton, writing to the Equity, the official organ of the American Society of Equity, has the following to say:

As there seems to be some stir in the ranks of the American Society of Equity, the growers are urging to secure the prices that will be decided upon at a meeting to be held in Chicago, September 3, 1907. This will be a gathering of members and officers of three states: Minnesota, Michigan and Wisconsin will meet the officers of the National Union and the president and directors of the Fruit and Produce Branch will meet with them, so the members will have a guide to go by in disposing of their potato crop.

There will be a recommendation to dispose of only a certain amount in October, and it will be to the advantage of all the members to watch and wait until after that meeting before disposing of their potatoes, and then work to the line that will be decided upon. Then will they see the benefit of organization.

Installing New Switchboard.

The Wood County Telephone company expects to have their new switchboard installed this week. Three men from the Vot-Berger company of LaCrosse, from whom the board was purchased, have been in the city during the past week and they have been hustling the work forward as rapidly as possible.

The new board will be wired up so as to accommodate 450 telephones, and has an ultimate capacity of 3000, so that it will probably supply the demand for some time to come.

The board is one of the very latest models of this sort of contrivance, in fact there are very few like it in existence, the principle on which it works being comparatively a new invention in the telephone world. When the changes are all made the people here should receive as good service as anywhere.

Again Locked up.

F. W. Young was placed under restraint again on Monday pending an investigation as to his mental condition. The old gentleman has been laboring under the delusion that he has been robbed and that the robbers are still after him. His relatives in Canada have been communicated with, and if they do not take care of him he will probably be sent to Oshkosh.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

One of the events of the season from a social standpoint was the city club dinner served at the clubhouse of the Crooked Rift Rod and Reel club Wednesday afternoon. The day was an ideal one for the purpose, being neither too warm nor too cool, and the guests began to arrive early in the afternoon. Prof. Bliss and his orchestra of eight pieces was in attendance and they discoursed sweet music during the entire afternoon and evening. Dinner was served about six o'clock and as there were about one hundred in attendance it was necessary to fill the tables twice in order to accommodate them all. The dinner was one of T. A. Taylor's best and everybody present seemed to be an admirer of his culinary skill, and ample justice was done to the fare set forth. After supper considerable time was spent with the fireworks and balloons, of which there was a varied assortment, and then a short time was spent in dancing. About half past nine the merry-makers commenced to prepare for home and it is doubtful if a more contented lot ever returned from a picnic. Many had gone with the expectation of the usual picnic time and those were agreeably disappointed. The grounds of the Crooked Rift Rod and Reel club are especially suited for an affair of this sort, as there are two buildings with an abundance of room, while the surrounding grounds are large and commodious. If there are any who had invitations to this affair who did not attend they are entitled to the sympathy of all.

The young people of the Congregational church held a hard times social on Tuesday evening at which there was a whole lot of fun for those who attended. The young people had fixed up a schedule of fun from which it was pretty hard to get away, and some of our people who have heretofore escaped the limit, were caught and given the limit. Some heretofore respected citizens were caught flirting with their neighbor's wives and were glad to pay the fine and get away without anything being said. It was a merry time, and incidentally the young people cleaned up several dollars for the society.

Miss Hattie Reiche entertained a party of young ladies on Thursday evening in honor of her guests, Misses Margaret Hutchinson and Lydia Gross of Neeshah. A mock wedding was one of the humorous parts of the evening's entertainment and those in attendance entered into the spirit of the occasion with a will. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening was had.

The members of the Episcopal church held their annual picnic at Birch Lodge on Thursday and enjoyed a very pleasant day. They went down in the morning in rickshaws and dinner was served, getting back home in time for supper in the evening. The day was spent in boating and swimming by the little ones and their elders and as the day was quite warm this proved a very enticing pastime. Birch Lodge is a very pleasant place for a day's outing of this kind, and the children were loud in their praise of the entertainment that had been furnished them.

A number of the friends surprised Miss Luella Jackson at her home on Oak street on Monday evening and spent several hours very pleasantly. The evening was spent in music and games and other amusements, and those who attended reported a most enjoyable time.

Miss Carolyn Briere entertained a small party of ladies for Mrs. Wm. Scott on Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in a most delightful manner, the event being closed by the serving of dainty refreshments. Those present report a very pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Kellogg entertained a small party of friends on Saturday evening for Mrs. S. F. Dargis. The guests spent the evening in playing "Cliff hundred" at the conclusion of which refreshments were served. A very pleasant evening was the result.

Golden Jubilee.

The Golden Jubilee of St. Peter and Paul Catholic church of this city will be celebrated on Sept. 15 and 16th. The committee desires the assistance of all the members of the congregation and citizens generally in this work. Features of the celebration will be "Home Coming" of all former members of the congregation. Invite your outside friends, or give the names and addresses to the Secretary of the committee, Louis A. Hannan, or to John R. Haggen, and a souvenir invitation will be sent them. A reception will be given to all those visitors on Monday afternoon at Foresters Hall. It is now planned to give an automobile drive to the visitors immediately after the reception.

The committee is preparing an historical souvenir, and for that purpose, need pictures of the old church, former priests, prior to Rev. Bayle, deceased members who were members fifty years ago, and old views of the city. If you have any of these pictures, kindly send them to Mr. Hannan or Mr. Haggen. The committee would also like to have all present members of the congregation who were members fifty years ago, meet at St. Peter's photograph gallery next Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock to have a group picture taken. This includes the ladies.

CAUGHT THEIR MEN.

Sheriff Welch and Justice Brown Return from Pacific Coast with Two Men.

Sheriff Welch and Justice B. L. Brown returned on Sunday from Tacoma, Washington, where they had gone to arrest Wm. H. Cummings and Thomas F. Cummings, two men who are charged with stock work in connection with the administration of affairs down in the town of Rain, Oregon.

It seems that the Cummings Bros. held office in the town of Rain, Oregon for a number of years past, and last spring they ran for office again, but it had become noted about that everything was not as straight as it might be in connection with their respective offices, and when the vote was counted it was found that a new set of officers had been elected.

After the new officers went to an investigation was started and it was found that there were indeed discrepancies in the accounts.

In the meantime the Cummings brothers had wound up their affairs and gone west, not waiting for any formalities in the matter. The matter was laid before the authorities here and Sheriff Welch took up the matter with the intention of locating the men, which he finally did. So saying the necessary papers the Sheriff wrote in Justice Brown as a special deputy, and not saying anything to the public as to where they were going, they left for the west.

They went after three men, but succeeded in capturing only two of them. Those they found working in a country in South Tacoma, and when called into the office and apprised of their arrest, expressed no surprise, and immediately prepared to accompany the officers back to this city. It is claimed that the present town officers have a number of charges on which the two men can be prosecuted, but they are saying very little about the matter until the facts come out in the trial.

The two men were taken before Justice Kexen on Monday but asked for an adjournment of one week, which was granted them, pending being fixed at $500 each, which was furnished.

Merrill Star:—Mrs. Alex and children of Grand Rapids arrived Saturday evening, and guests at the O. S. Stimers & Torrey homes. Mrs. Moore sister of Mr. Stimers and Mrs. Torrey. She lived in Merrill twenty years ago, and it was a surprise to her to see how much she has grown.

George Bronson departed Milwaukee morning for Neenah where he will join his sister, Miss Mattie, who is visiting there. They will also visit friends at Oshkosh and Appleton before returning home.

Miss Myrtle Rowland, with her sister, Miss Marlon, returned to this city Monday after camping for almost two weeks at Cleghorn on Waapeka Lakes. Miss Mae will remain a Waapeka with friends and attend the E. F. U. picnic Thursday, leaving for Milwaukee Friday morning.

Among the callers at the Tribune office on Friday was John T. Pagel of the town of Randolph. Mr. Pagel reports that he had a pig killed by lightning the Friday before, the animal being in the open field only about five rods from the house. Two other animals were hurt by the bolt but subsequently recovered.

Leonard Hildeman, who had been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hildeman, returned to his home in Milwaukee on Friday. T. W. Hildeman, who had also been visiting in this city, left for Watertown on Friday to visit with relatives for a short time, after which he will return to his home at Tacoma, Wash.

Platfield Sen. — Mrs. Richard Applebee and niece, Miss Lucile Allison, returned from their visit at Grand Rapids Friday. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. N. Christensen, of that city, and Mr. Elmer Peavy, of Bancroft, who remained for a couple of days' visit with old friends.

According to Washington meteorologists the earth is now passing through the tail of the Stone comet and the air is supposed to be full of meteoric dust. Several of our citizens have been annoyed during the past few warm evenings looking heavenward through glass, but it is not known just where they expected to see.

Frank Wheelan of Tulsa, Oklahoma, arrived in the city on Wednesday afternoon about a month visiting his relatives and friends in this city. Frank says the present summer here has been excessively hot down in the country, which is unusual, as ordinarily the heat there is not at all oppressive. He is well pleased with the country, however.

Marshfield Times. — Cashier O. Lindeman and Dr. H. A. Lathrop received their Ford runabouts last Wednesday and the machines are little beauties. Several other business and professional men here have automobiles and a number of them, before fall, will be purchasing new.

J. Q. Daniels of Babcock was in the city Tuesday on business, and during his stay favored the Tribune office with a pleasant call. Mr. Daniels reports that they are having more rain down his way than there is any need of. Twelve inches of water having fallen during the month of July and five inches so far during the month of August. This amount of water naturally causes them some inconvenience on the low lands.

Young man, that beautiful woman whom you worship as a pillar of adulterated sweetness doesn't count even three ounces of sugar. It has been shown by analysis that a person weighing 154 pounds is composed of 96 pounds of water, 3 pounds of the white of eggs, a little less than a pound of glue, 34½ pounds of 84½ pounds of phosphate of lime, 1 ounce of sugar and starch, 7 ounces of chloride of calcium, 6 ounces phosphoric acid and a little ordinary table salt.

Adolph Bankow, secretary of the Marshfield fair association and editor of the Marshfield Demokrat, was in the city on Friday doing some advertising for the fair. Mr. Bankow says they are going to have a class fair this year with a whole lot of first class attractions and expect large attendance. He has made arrangements for a special train from Central on Thursday, the 29th, to pick up in the morning and returning the evening and the expectation is that there will be a large attendance from this city.

Joe Nogalski and family left Thursday for Milwaukee where they expect to visit for a time and Mr. Nogalski will go to Michigan to look over the country with the view of finding a place to locate. Nogalski recently sold his farm near the town of Sigel to outside parties and is under the impression that there are places where the farmer can get rich faster than he can in Winco. Joe's friends will all be glad to learn that he should be discovered in Wood County was just as good a rest of them.

One's Stomach.

The human stomach is the great pump or machinery ever invented. It will stand more abuse than a shredder, take care of foods that will in tin can, hold drinks that will in its way through a pine board, and stuff that a dog will not stop to eat and look out for whatever is put into it day or night. A chicken would refuse to grind — were it treated better than a fellow's stomach and a tombstone would shatter if lettered if it had poured over it. Liquid the average man pours down his throat. People talk about stomach trouble. There is no such trouble. The trouble is in the fellow who owns the stomach. Give him with the stomach itself. Give him a chance, a two quart stomach content a ten gallon lard can, a patent leather saddle. That something becomes clogged up occasionally or eventually wears out is no wonder if it is considered how often abused. — Elroy Tribune.

For the good of those suffering from eczema or other such trouble, I say, my wife had something kind and nice as the doctor's pills for some time concluded Chamberlain's Salve, and it proved better than anything she had before said by Daily Drug & Jewelry.

It was thought last week when the names of those that had been nominated for the voting contest were published that every young lady within a radius of twenty-five miles had been named as a prospective winner of one of the prizes, but it seems that we were mistaken since there several new names have been sent in which have been included in the list of prospectives. While everybody will not get a prize, still there are a number who will, as the prizes will be given to the lady having the largest number of votes. Nobody connected with the Tribune office or with the publishers of the Tribune will be allowed to take part in the contest, so that the votes will have to come from outside entirely.

The free coupon found in each copy of this paper is good for 25 votes for any lady nominated or for some one you wish to nominate. A large number of the merchants are interested and are giving free coupons with ever dollar purchase. You will find their names in this paper. When trading with these merchants ask them to give you a coupon, before and ask for the coupons, have your friends ask for them and save them for you. The largest numbers of votes come on subscriptions and renewals. Renew your subscription and give the votes to your favorite candidate. If you are not taking the TRIBUNE, subscribe for it at $600 VOTES.

To make it interesting from now start we are offering $10.00 in gold to the lady having the highest number of votes to her credit at the time of the first announcement of the standings of candidates. This announcement will be on Sept. 4th. Whoever has the list at this time, besides winning the $10.00, will have made a step toward the beautiful piano or any of the valuable prizes offered by the Tribune. Every vote will help bring up the final count. Just think, one year's scholarship in the Northwest University absolutely free for your choice of any course in the University. If you want to win any of the handsome prizes. You must start to work today. There is no time to lose.

The break occurred while the engineer was mowing just after the sun had begun to shut off its rays from behind the hills. The engine had stopped running. Those about the plant were unable to explain why the break had occurred and nothing could be found that would be apt to cause the trouble.

Since the break down the small engine has been running, but this is unable to carry the night load and as a consequence some of the residents of the city have been out of light of commission.

Tonah Monitor-Herald:—Various startling rumors gained credence around this city this week that Fred Schout, of this city, had been found of great value on day early this week. He lately purchased a small frame residence in the third ward formerly owned by Michael Larkin, now deceased, who had been a recluse for many years, and was tearing out walls to make necessary changes for habitation by his family, when he unearthed an old dusty, rust-covered tin box. Mr. Larkin was supposed to have had considerable money stashed away when he died, but no trace of it was ever discovered, and the receiver of the box was extremely anxious to discover what the box contained. On opening it $10,000 in government bonds, besides many notes, bills and smaller currency was uncovered amounting in the whole to probably $20,000. The bulk of the fortune will go to Morris Larkin, brother of the recluse and a worthy citizen of this city, but the finder of the treasure will reap a reward of probably 25 per cent, given him $5,000 more or less, which, with the house he considers a good investment on a price paid.

A Tribune correspondent has discovered that housework is the most attractive employment for women, but that, nevertheless, they shun it. Not being a woman, the correspondent should know. The first honorary degree of doctor of medicine which Oxford university has ever granted has just been conferred upon a man who has been forward in the line of medicine in London. He gave up the degree in London to devote his knowledge and his life to the poor fishfolk of Labrador. The recipient of the degree is Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell, and the degree itself is, with peculiar significance in this case, "honoris causa."

It is almost an axiom that no strike has succeeded which has not public sympathy on its side. The leaders of two recent strikes in New York must have forgotten this, for it is hard for the public to sympathize with men who let the teachers of a great city rot in the streets and breed disease, or with men who prevent the sufferers in the cement-houses from getting free. The wise leader is the one who first makes sure that he has a just cause, and then lets the public know all about it.

So many thefts and embezzlements by employees have been committed in New York banks and other financial institutions within the past few months that alarm has been caused among the owners of these establishments. They have decided to demand that every clerk give bond whether his duties call for the handling of cash or not. If he does not handle funds a bond of $5,000 is to be required, and the amount is to be paid in accordance with the responsibility.

STRIKE OF WESTERN UNION AND POSTAL OPERATORS SPREADING THROUGHOUT ENTIRE COUNTRY AND TO CANADA.

Chicago—President Sylvester J. Small of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America issued the following general strike order at two o'clock Friday morning:

To all Commercial Telegraphers: All telegraphers employed by the commercial telegraph companies, the Associated Press and private and leased wires, not working under a union agreement, are hereby called upon to cease work immediately by striking the board of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, S. J. Small, President.

Decision Reached at Midnight. Although the strike order was issued upon at midnight, it was not made public until two hours later, following a conference at the Chicago house in which President Small, Secretary of the American Federation of Labor, and several other leaders were present.

At the Chicago house conference it was decided definitely that there should be no strike of the 45,000 telegraph operators of the United States, but that the telegraphers will be called upon to contribute a strike fund of $50,000. Two of their general officers attended the conference.

The action is estimated to mean an additional strike of about 4,500 men in the country, including the telegraphers, and will take into the Chicago stockyards, in addition to the 40 who quit at Aurora.

Compass in Commanding Position. Mr. Gompers is in position, when the time arrives, to exercise a powerful influence over the situation, aside from the years of experience that he has had in labor difficulties. He will have had in Washington next week the quarterly meeting of the national executive board of the federation of labor. That board will vote upon the advisability of a strike assessment upon the 2,000,000 members of the federation of labor. In the event of a strike, the federation is expected to furnish the funds of war.

Mr. Small's attitude on arbitration was briefly expressed thus: "We will consider arbitration when the time comes."

He indicated that the time was not ripe for arbitration and might not be for some time.

When he came into the city Mr. Small was greeted with a tumultuous demonstration at the Union station, the greatest reception ever rendered for a leader of organized labor.

Thousands of minutemen met him at the Union depot, and followed him to his hotel, where he was met by a "no arbitration" wildly with the "no arbitration" wildly.

Executive Board Acts. Chicago—With nearly 10,000 operators on strike in 96 cities Wednesday afternoon, the general executive board of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union sent out a decidedly striking message to the presidents of all other boards of telegraphers in the United States and Canada, warning them to get their business into shape to combat within 24 hours a strike which by that time shall have "spread to every branch of the commercial telegraph service."

Armour & Co. Men Quit Work. Chicago—The stockyards walked out at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday, following the refusal of that firm to sign the proposed new contract granting an increase of salary from $30 to $35 a week. It is thought that this will be followed by the 100 operators employed to work leased wires by the other packing firms.

President Keeps Hands Off. Over Bay, N. Y.—President Roosevelt will not concern himself personally with the telegraphers' strike, according to the best information obtainable here.

Appeals to the president to take some action looking to a settlement of the strike were received at the executive office here Wednesday morning by a large number of cities. The applications were similar in character to those formulated Thursday by the Chicago board of telegraphers, emphasizing the importance of the direct action by the president.

The communications have been referred to Commissioner of Labor Charles P. Neill. It is understood that no instructions or recommendations will be given by Mr. Neill, but that he will endeavor to effect a settlement of the trouble. It is stated here that he has, as yet, made no report to the president, nor has he received Telegraphers temporarily filling positions of higher rating than their own shall be paid the salary of the position temporarily filled.

Messages from Mr. Roosevelt touching upon the matter in hand.

Mr. Neill's movements, however, have been closely followed, and while the direct statement is not made, the impression given is that Mr. Neill's effort the administration considers the limit of its functions and authority in the matter is being exercised.

Walkouts Are Legalized. Chicago—The latest developments in the strike of telegraph operators are:

General strike rendered practically certain by orders of National Secretary Wesley Russell, who sent word authorizing those walkouts which have occurred and commanding union members in other cities to refuse to handle "struck" business. On arrival of President Small in Chicago the formal order for a general strike was promulgated.

Escalade involving of railway telegraphers, 45,000 strong, as result of refusal over Baltimore & Ohio operator's refusal to handle commercial business.

Executive committee of the Order of Railway Telegraphers makes demands on the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railroad companies for revision of the rules.

Label leaders offer their aid in bringing about settlement of dispute between men and company.

Trouble extends to Canada, operators walking out at Toronto, Ont., and in America, Boston, Richmond, Va., and other cities are involved.

The Associated Press continues its news service despite strike of its operators in Chicago, New York and elsewhere.

The president of the Chicago board of trade sent a telegram to President Roosevelt, urging him to take a personal hand in settling the strike.

New Yorkers in Line. Chicago—Walkout of operators of the Western Union company and Postal company in New York was the chief development of Monday in the spread of the telegraphers' strike.

The men in the eastern metropolis left their keys without orders of the union officials, but the latter will give support to the strike.

Later in the day the Postal and Western Union operators in Philadelphia, those of both companies in Cleveland, Baltimore and Washington quit work.

With Monday's strikes in different cities the struggle between the Pacific coast and the Atlantic coast to the Pacific and from the Gulf of Mexico as far north as Montreal, where about 30 operators went out in sympathy with those of the United States.

Associated Press Men Quit. Many of the telegraph operators employed throughout the country by the Associated Press walked out on strike Friday morning. All of the night operators in the New York and Chicago offices quit.

The fire was discovered about eight o'clock in the upper part of the Olympia hotel annex, which was occupied mainly by the Swedish and Danish emigrants. It is supposed that an upset lamp was the origin of the blaze.

Adjoining buildings containing stores, located along the board walk beside the Boston & Maine railroad tracks, soon caught fire, and the flames jumped the tracks and communicated with the Albert hotel and several other large buildings near the shore. An area of about 50 acres along the beach was soon blazing.

In this area were located some of the most popular of the hotels, all of which were filled to overflowing with summer guests. Many of the buildings were also located in this area, and the fire spread rapidly.

OLD ORCHARD AFIRE

CONFLAGRATION RAGES IN THE MAINE SUMMER RESORT.

MANY HOTELS BURNDOWN

Fifty Handsome Cottages Also Destroyed—Guests All Escape Safely—Loss About Half a Million.

Old Orchard, Me.—Nearly one-half of Old Orchard's summer hotel section along the shore front was swept by fire Thursday night, the loss probably amounting to fully $500,000.

The Hotel Pliska, one of the finest on the beach, valued at $200,000, with the Hotel Emerson, valued at $75,000, with the Hotel Lawrence house and a half dozen smaller hotels, together with about 50 cottages, were destroyed within two hours. All the buildings were of wooden construction and before the flames, fanned by a southwest breeze, were an easy prey.

The Old Orchard fire department was utterly unable to handle the blaze, and the firemen from Portland, Biddeford and Saco, who responded to calls for assistance, were hampered for some time after their arrival by difficulty with the hose couplings.

At 10:30 o'clock, in spite of all efforts, the fire was still spreading to the eastward and seemed likely to be stopped only when it had exhausted the material on which it could feed in that direction.

The fire was discovered about eight o'clock in the upper part of the Olympia hotel annex, which was occupied mainly by the Swedish and Danish emigrants. It is supposed that an upset lamp was the origin of the blaze.

Are Now Artesian Wells

One Curious Result of the Earthquake at San Francisco.

It has just been discovered that the upheaval of April 18 did funny things to the wells in the courtyard at the rear of the San Francisco mint, says the Chronicle of that city. For years prior to April 18 these had been ordinary, well behaved wells, yielding water plentifully when a steam pump was employed. But now, spouting artesian wells, from steady stream of water if no pumping is done. This occurred when the pump was taken for repairs, the courtyard being within a short time.

The wells have been bored 175 feet ago, and are about 175 feet deep. There was apparently a sudden connection between them and the pumping of water from the the water in the other. Nordal's water was within 30 feet of the face, and that was the condition when the pump was taken out last 1911. Recently, for the first time in March, the pumps were again moved, when it was discovered the water flowed freely.

Also the Worst.

"A woman always gets the best of a man in an argument," Nordal said.

AMONG CRANBERRY MEN.

CRANBERRY EXPERIMENT STATION NOTES.

By C. B. Hildebrand and G. G. Mable.

Cranberry Experiment Station Notes.

The blackhead fly, Simulium, second brood, are now about full grown, and part of them have pupated. This second brood is showing a decided tendency to pupate underground, making an earthen cocoon like that of the fruitworm, but many also can be found to have formed their cocoon between the spun up leaves of one or more uprights, or even inside of a berry. At the present time the first brood of blackhead and yellowhead are doing the principal damage to the berries in this neighborhood, while the fruitworm is just getting a good start. In about a week from now, the first blackhead millers will appear, they will lay eggs on the underside of the leaves, and then die. The eggs will remain on the vines all winter and do not hatch until spring. The yellowheads have still another brood coming this year, but this will do the work mostly after picking time, the damage of this brood to the crop is generally slight, although there is some damage this year that it may prove troublesome, because the berries are growing slowly and will not ripen as early as usual.

The fruitworm is found in all stages of development from egg until full grown larvae and even cocoons. The millers seem to have disappeared, but there are some eggs and some still found. These eggs are the blackest things to notice, and can only be found by examining carefully one berry after another with a lens. They are very transparent, and they can only be discovered by the light being reflected from their surface. They can hardly be said to have a certain shape, as they are so soft as to adopt themselves easily to any inequality of surface. They may be perfectly round, or oval, if deposited free, but if laid in a corner of the sepals, they may have any shape, determined by their position. They are very sticky, and the eggs are laid at the apex and next to the stem. Upon opening such a berry we will find a narrow passage connecting the hole with the seed chamber, and if the larva is newly hatched, it will be found inside of one of the seeds. The seeds are always the first to be eaten and only after these are gone does the worm attack the meat of the berry.

The yellowheaded vineworm, blackheaded vineworm and fruitworm are not by any means the only insects which do injury to the cranberry. Although in Wisconsin do not seem to have been visited by the "false army worm," which has done considerable damage in the West, we have had another one to take its place (which we at first erroneously call the false army worm) which was practically unknown in the East as a cranberry feeder. These different army worms have been found, and we have no reason to doubt that the majority of the millers of that family, which are found flying around on the bog, will prove to be cranberry feeders. Although about a dozen millers have been found about a dozen berries, or the stem, while the terminal bud is destroyed by a little fly larva, the cranberry tip worm. Even the blossom is not exempt from insect attack for a small amount-bottle (as yet unidentified) has been found to injure the bud. We noticed some time ago that a good many berries did not develop berries. This was at first attributed to blight or rot, but upon more careful examination it was found that the bud had dropped off without ever having opened into a blossom. Inside of these blossoms was found a small weevil or snout-beetle or its larva or pupa. From the appearance of the bud it seems that the parent weevil bored a hole in the bud through one of the petals and deposited an egg therein. The hatching grub eats the inside of the bud and completes its entire development in there. The bud never opens and in most cases drops off, but this is not without exception.

The zinc etchings (referred to as "inch etchings" by a typographical error in an earlier issue) will be obtained for periods of one half month.

To illustrate by curves the difference of temperatures on different parts of the bog.

The zinc etchings being secured from away will of necessity be a little late in getting into print.

To be familiar with the exposure of the instruments on the different plots the following explanations should be kept in a convenient place for reference.

Consolidated Not Sold

The statement has been made by some of the daily papers to the effect that the mill of the Consolidated Water Power and Paper Co. of this city had sold out to the International Paper Co.

During an interview with Mr. Mead on Tuesday that gentleman stated that such was not the case. That the Consolidated people had not considered any proposition for the purpose of selling and that it was not the intention of the company to do so.

While it is known that other mills in this vicinity have been considering propositions from some concern which wanted to buy them, it is not known whether they have sold or intend to sell. Along this line, the following dispatch from Appleton may be of interest, altho it cannot be said as to how much truth there is in the matter.

According to reports in circulation here, the involuntary dissolution of the General Paper company was the indirect cause of the merger of the paper and pulp mills of the Middle West.

It is generally believed the members of the former alleged paper trust were the first to take the matter of the merger up, and that being unable to agree among themselves the International Paper company was appealed to.

This belief is strengthened by the fact that options are said to have been secured on all but two of the plants of the former no-called trust, and one of them is now said to be clamoring for admission to the International Paper company.

The International Paper company now owns thirty mills in the East with a combined capacity of 3,400,000 pounds of paper per day, or 1,700 tons of paper every twenty four hours.

The average price of the paper is 3 cents per pound, or $60 per ton, which makes the output of the mills now owned by the company in the East $102,000 worth per day.

The mills in the West on which options are said to have been secured have a capacity of 2,486,000 pounds of paper, or 1,243 tons per day, which at an average of 3 cents per pound, or $60 per ton, makes the paper manufacture in the Western mills worth $74,580 per day.

Added to this, the Western mills have a capacity of 528 tons of sulphate per day worth $45 per ton, or $23,760 per day, and 950 tons of ground wood pulp per day, worth $30 per ton, or $28,500. Thus the total earning capacity of the mills of the West, which are to be taken into the merger, is $126,840 every twenty-four hours, and when the merger is completed and the International Paper company owns the mills of both East and West, this gigantic corporation will have an earning capacity of $228,840 per day.

BERLIN SHUT OUT

Game on Sunday Results in Score of 2 to 0 in Favor of Home Team

Lovers of base-ball witnessed a good game on Sunday when the Berlin boys and the Tigers got together. The hitting was not very heavy on either side, and quite a number of men were struck out on both sides, but it was an interesting contest just the same, one of the best that has been played on the local grounds.

Boyers pitched for the Tigers, and while he was a trifle wild at times, he threw a good game and was there with the goods at the most critical points. He was ably supported by McConnell behind the bat. A good time was also played a good game, notwithstanding the fact that he is still suffering from a sprained ankle, which handicaps him somewhat. Dulin held down third base with his usual steadiness, as did Wackler at short. The fielders had little to do as there was a heavy wind blowing and very few balls got out into their territory.

It was a whitewash on both sides until the last half of the eighth inning when a hit, combined with an error on the part of Berlin allowed two runs to come in. Several times Berlin had a man on third base, but each time he was prevented from scoring by a very narrow margin. The boys played as steady a game as one could wish to see by an amateur team and a large crowd of spectators was delighted by the exhibition.

Grand Rapids Athletics Win at Neocadah.

The Athletics went to Neocadah Sunday and took the second game of the season, altho the boys had little hopes of winning up to the fourth inning the score standing 0 to 0. Neocadah's favor, the Neocadah twirler having 7 strikes out to his credit. But things changed. After two were out in the fourth inning the Athletics got 5 two batters in succession. Most of them would have been good for home runs or 3 bases but for the ground rules, they could only take 2 bases on a ball hit over the fence. Three out of the five two base hits were over the fence. Neocadah had a strong line up, having all but two hired men. The game was marked by wild throwing, errors and occasional catches.

Greenberg started the twirling for Neocadah and did fine work up to the fourth inning when the Rapids boys got to hitting, then he gave up to Leomis of Mauston. Fahrner was on the firing line for the Athletics and did fine work.

Foresters at Neokosa.

The Catholic Foresters went to Neokosa on Sunday and played a game with the Forester team of that city, the game resulting in a victory for the Neokosa boys by a score of 14 to 9. The game was a spirited one and greatly enjoyed by the spectators. The team from this city was composed of: Nash, Brennan, Link, Boyer, Friend, Nintz, Corcoran, Meyer and Erner.

Advise Holding Potatoes.

Thos. Emmertson, writing to the Equity, the official organ of the American Society of Equity, has the following to say: As there seems to be some stir in the ranks of the American Society of Equity, now the potato crop is maturing, the growers are willing to secure the prices that will be decided upon at a meeting to be held in Chicago, September 3, 1907. This will be a gathering of members and officers of three states: Minnesota, Michigan and Wisconsin. The officers of those three states will meet the officers of the National Union and the president and directors of the Fruit and Produce Branch will meet with them, so the members will have a guide to go by in disposing of their potato crop.

There will be a recommendation to dispose of only a certain amount in October, and it will be to the advantage of all the members to watch and wait until after that meeting before disposing of their potatoes, and then work to the line that will be decided upon. Then will they see the benefit of organization.

Installing New Switchboard.

The Wood County Telephone company expects to have their new switchboard installed this week. Three men from the Veto-Berg company of LaCrosse, from whom the board was purchased, have been in the city during the past week and they have been hustling the work forward as rapidly as possible.

The new board will be wired up so as to accommodate 450 telephones, and has an ultimate capacity of 1000, so that it will probably supply the demand for some time to come.

The board is one of the very latest models of this sort of contrivance, in fact there are very few like it in existence. The principle on which it operates being comparatively a new invention in the telephone world. When the changes are all made the people here should receive as good service as anywhere.

Again Locked up.

F. W. Young was placed under restraint again on Monday pending an investigation as to his mental condition. The old gentleman has been laboring under the delusion that he has been robbed and that the robbers are still after him. His relatives in Canada have been communicated with, and if they do not take care of him he will probably be sent to Oshkosh.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

One of the events of the season from a social standpoint was the city club dinner served at the clubhouse of the Crooked Rift Rod and Reel club Wednesday afternoon. The day was an ideal one for the purpose, being neither too warm nor too cool, and the guests began to arrive early in the afternoon. Prof. Bliss and his orchestra of eight pieces was in attendance and they discoursed sweet music during the entire afternoon and evening. Dinner was served about six o'clock and as there were about one hundred in attendance it was necessary to fill the tables twice in order to accommodate them all. The dinner was one of T. A. Taylor's best and everybody present seemed to be an admirer of his culinary skill, and ample justice was done to the fare set forth. After supper considerable time was spent with the fireworks and balloons, of which there was a varied assortment, and then a short time was spent in dancing. About half past nine the merry ushers commenced to prepare for home and it is doubtful if a more contented lot ever returned from a picnic. Many had gone with the expectation of the usual picnic time and these were agreeably disappointed. The grounds of the Crooked Rift Rod and Reel club are especially suited for an affair of this sort, as there are two buildings with an abundance of room, while the surrounding grounds are large and commodious. If there are any who had invitations to this affair who did not attend they are entitled to the sympathy of all.

The young people of the Congregational church held a hard time social on Tuesday evening at which there was a whole lot of fun for those who attended. The young people had fixed up a schedule of things from which it was pretty hard to get away, and some of our people who have heretofore escaped the law, were caught and given the limit. Some heretofore respected citizens were caught flitting with their neighbor's wives and were glad to pay the fine and get away without anything being said. It was a merry time, and incidentally the young people cleaned up several dollars for the society.

Miss Hattie Reichel entertained a party of young ladies on Thursday evening in honor of her guests, Misses Margaret Hutchinson and Lydia Gross of Neocadah. A mock wedding was one of the humorous parts of the evening's entertainment and these in attendance entered into the spirit of the occasion with a will. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening was had.

The members of the Episcopal church held their annual picnic at Birch Lodge on Thursday and enjoyed a very pleasant day. They went down in the morning in rigs and dinner was served, getting back home in time for supper in the evening. The day was spent in boating and swimming by the little ones and their elders and as the day was quite warm this proved a very enticing pastime. Birch Lodge is a very pleasant place for a days outing of this kind, and the children were loud in their praise of the entertainment that had been furnished them.

A number of the friends surprised Miss Lucella Jackson at her home on Oak street on Monday evening and spent several hours very pleasantly. The evening was spent in music and games and other amusements, and those who attended reported a most enjoyable time.

Miss Carolyn Briere entertained a small party of ladies for Mrs. Wm. Scott on Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in a most delightful manner, the event being closed by the serving of dainty refreshments. Those present report a very pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Kellogg entertained a small party of friends on Saturday evening for Mrs. S. E. Darga. The guests spent the evening in playing "five hundred" at the conclusion of which refreshments were served. A very pleasant evening was the result.

Golden Jubilee.

The Golden Jubilee of St. Peter and Paul Catholic church of this city will be celebrated on Sept. 15 and 16th. The committee desires the assistance of all the members of the congregation and citizens generally in this work. One feature of the celebration will be the "Home Coming" of all former members of the congregation. Invite your outside friends, or give the names and addresses to the Secretary of the committee, Louis A. Bauman, or to John R. Ragan, and a souvenir invitation will be sent them. A reception will be given to all those visitors on Monday afternoon at Foresters Hall. It is now planned to give an automobile drive to the visitors immediately after the reception.

The committee is preparing an historical souvenir, and for that purpose, need pictures of the old church, former priests, prior to Rev. Bayrie, deceased members who were members fifty years ago, and old views of the city. If you have any of these pictures, kindly send them to Mr. Bauman or Mr. Ragan. The committee would also like to have all present members of the congregation who were members fifty years ago, meet at Meuzel's photographic gallery next Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock to have a group picture taken. This includes the ladies.

Recovering from Injuries.

Close to a Front.

There was a narrow escape from freezing weather on the marshes on Monday and Tuesday nights, mercury going down to 22 degrees both nights. On Tuesday night this temperature was reached early in the night and had it not been for the fact that the sky clouded up and the wind increased there might have been some damage.

No Band Concert.

Owing to the fact that a number of the bandmen are out of the city taking their summer vacation there will be no band concert on Thursday evening. What is left of the organization, however, will furnish music for the progressive tea which is being given this evening for the benefit of the Women's Federated club.

Will Build a Creamery.

At the last meeting of the American Society of Equity held Saturday evening at Vesper it was decided to build a new creamery in that village with a large enough capacity to handle all the "Equity" cream in Wood County.

Five directors were elected, they being Henry Hackett, W. J. Mann, A. P. Bean, Wm. Ehlerk and O. J. Lau.

The company was capitalized at $2500 and two-thirds of the stock has been sold already.

O. R. Goldworthy has offered to donate the land needed for the new creamery. The new company is to be called the "Equitable Creamery Company," and work will be begun on the building soon. Building is to be of solid brick with steel roof and cement floors to make it fireproof.

What this country needs is decided automobiles.
Afonso may visit South America.
Is that a sign the baby is crying to be?

Special messengers are sometimes important in army life as well as military duties.
A Massachusetts man has eloped coerced into it by, more probably.

Germany is rapidly catching up.
They have had 1,500 automobiles in use over there during the past six months.
No more injunction can stop a free American from working that the army against the staff trust is nothing

It was only right that the New York

A Massachusetts man started on his he was going to land. That is the

A New Jersey horticulturist claims have been a little more explicit and described it as being almost as large

Should he enter the race for the

the Arkansas undertaker who has

A Tribune correspondent has discovered that housework is the most attractive employment for women, but that, nevertheless, they shun it. Not being a woman, the correspondent more congenial occupation than writ-manual labor.

The first honorary degree of doctor of medicine which Oxford university has ever granted has just been conferred upon a man who had looked forward to the practice of medicine in London. He gave up the idea years ago to devote his knowledge and his life to the poor fisherfolk of Labrador.
The recipient of the degree is Dr.
Wilfred P. Grenfell, the doctor who, with peculiar significance in this case, "honors causa."

It is almost an axiom that no strike can succeed which has not public sympathy on its side. The leaders of two recent strikes in New York must have forgotten this, for it is hard for the public to sympathize with men who let the garbage of a great city rot in the streets and breed disease, or with men who prevent the sufferers in the sewer-houses from getting clean clothes. The leader is the one who first makes sure that he has a just cause, and then lets the public know all about it.

So many thefts and embezzlements by employees have been committed in New York banks and other fiduciary institutions within the past few months that alarm has been caused and several of these establishments have, says the Indianapolis Star, dismissed the beginning of the year handling of cash or not. If he does not handle funds a bond of $5,000 is to be required, and the amount increased in accordance with the responsibility.

TELEGRAPH KEYS SILENT
FROM COAST TO COAST

STRIKE OF WESTERN UNION AND POSTAL OPERATORS SPREAD-ING THROUGHOUT EN-TIRE COUNTRY AND TO CANADA.

Chicago—President Sylvester J.
Small of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America issued the following general strike order at two o'clock Friday morning.

"To All Commercial Telegraphers.
All telegraphers employed by the commercial telegraph companies, the Associated Press and private and leased wires, not working under a union agreement, are hereby called upon to cease work immediately by authority of the president and general executive board of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America. S. J.
Small, President."

Decision Reached at Midnight.
Although the strike order was declared upon at midnight, it was not made until two hours later, following a conference at the Briggs house in which President Small, Secretary Russell, President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, and several other leaders were present.

At the Briggs house conference it also was decided definitely that there should be no strike of the 47,000 railroad telegraphers of the United States.
These operators will be called upon shortly to contribute a strike fund of $50,000. Two of their general offices attacked the conference.

The action is estimated to mean an additional strike of around 5,000 men in the country, including all the remaining operators employed by the big packing houses. It will take out 75 men in the Chicago stockyards alone, in addition to the 50 who quit at Aurora's.

Gompers in Commanding Position.
Mr. Gompers is in position, when the time arrives, to exercise a powerful influence over the situation aside from the years of experience that he has had in labor difficulties. He will attend in Washington next week the quarterly meeting of the national organization of the federation of labor. That board will vote upon the advisability of a strike assessment upon the 2,000,000 members of the federation of labor. In other words, the federation of labor is expected to furnish the sinews of war.

At Small's attack on an arbitration was briefly exposed thus:
"We will consider arbitration when the time comes."
He indicated that the time was not ripe for arbitration and might not be for some time.

When he came into the city Mr.
Small was greeted with a tumultuous demonstration at the Union station, the greatest reception ever tendered a leader of organized labor.
Thousands of unionists met him at the Union depot, and cheered him wildly, with cries of "arbitration!"

Chicago—With nearly 10,000 operators on strike in 96 cities Wednesday afternoon, the general executive board of the Commercial Telegraphers' union sent out a decidedly warlike message to the presidents of the boards of trade and all other chambers of commerce and bodies in the United States and Canada, warning them to get their business into shape to combat within 24 hours a strike which by that time shall have "spread to every branch of the commercial telegraph service."

President Keeps Hands Off.
Oyster Bay, N. Y.—President Roosevelt will not concern himself personally with the telegraphers' strike, according to the best information obtainable here.

Appeals to the president to take some action looking to a settlement of the strike were received at the executive office here Wednesday from boards of trade and commercial bodies of a large number of cities. The applications were similar in character to those formulated Tuesday by the Chicago board of trade. Each emphasized the importance of the direct action by the president.

The communications have been referred to Commissioner of Labor Charles D. Smith, who has issued no instructions or recommendations have been forwarded to Mr. Neill.
From the first Mr. Neill has been active in an endeavor to effect a settlement of the trouble. It is stated here that he has, as yet, made no report to the president, nor has he received

OLD ORCHARD AFIRE

CONFLAGRATION RAGES IN THE MAINE SUMMER RESORT.

MANY HOTELS BURNED DOWN
Fifty Handsome Cottages Also Destroyed—Guests All Escape Safely—Loss About Half a Million.

Old Orchard, Me.—Nearly one-half of Old Orchard's summer hotel section along the shore front was swept by fire Thursday night, the loss probably amounting to fully $500,000.
The Hotel Elsie, one of the finest on the beach, valued at $50,000, the Hotel Emerson, valued at $15,000, the Hotel Alford, the Hotel Albert, the Hotel Aldine, the Lawrence house and a half dozen smaller hotels, together with about 50 cottages, were destroyed within two hours. All the buildings were of wooden construction and before the flames, fanned by a southwest breeze, were an easy prey.

The Old Orchard fire department was utterly unable to handle the blaze, and the firemen from Portland, Biddeford and Saco, who responded to calls for assistance, were hampered for some time after their arrival by difficulty with the hose couplings.
At 10:30 o'clock, in spite of all efforts, the fire was still spreading to the eastward and seemed likely to be stopped only when it had exhausted the material on which it could feed in that direction.

The fire was discovered about eight o'clock in the upper part of the Old Orchard hotel section, which was occupied mainly by servants employed in the hotel Emerson. It is supposed that an upset lamp was the origin of the blaze.

Adjoining buildings containing stores, located along the board walk beside the Ocean and Maine railroad tracks, soon caught fire, and from these the flames jumped the tracks and communicated with the Alberca hotel and several other large buildings near the shore. An area of about 50 acres along the beach was soon blasted.

In this area were located some of the most popular of the hotels, all of which were filled to overflowing with summer guests. Many valuable summer cottages were also located in this district and those, too, were swept by the fire. Most of the guests managed to save a considerable quantity of their belongings.

DENVER FLYER IS WRECKED.
Eleven Persons Are Injured, Two of Whom May Die.

Des Moines, Ia.—The fast Burlington train from Denver to Chicago was wrecked a mile east of Russell, Ia., Thursday, injuring 11 persons, two of whom may die.
The derailment of the front truck of the first mail coach was the cause of the wreck, though why the truck went off the track no one can explain.

Weston, Mo.—Burlington passenger train No. 28, south-bound, was wrecked here Thursday, resulting in the death of one man and serious injury to four other persons. Louis N. Virgil, a traveling salesman, of Kansas City, was killed.

BLOODY TRAGEDY IN NEW YORK.
Man Murders His Wife and Is Killed

New York—George Wassor, 57 years of age, murdered his wife and was in turn slain by his daughter at Thursday. Wassor fired upon his wife and then exchanged shots with the daughter. The latter was not seriously injured, but was soon succumbed to her injuries and her husband died a little later. The daughter was arrested.

The condition of the victims is critical.

DEW AND SNOW BLEACHING.

Will Remove the Yellowing That Comes from Long Lying.

The yellowing that comes from long lying, also many stains, have no better remedy than dew or snow bleaching.
The process is of the simplest. Soak the garments in very weak borax water, let stand all day, then lay out and then shake them well and lay flat upon either the snow or the grass, where the sun can strike them all over. Leave a day or two, then turn over. In dew-bleaching, if the moon sun is very hot, sprinkle the garments with a fine atomizer, or a whisk broom, but do not make them very wet. Hand rain will not hurt if the grass is thick below. But in cloudy, showery weather take the things in and dry them for fear of mildew. Snow-bleaching is especially good for the things—sweaters and flouncettes. With fading whites and sunny days, it acts like magic. And neither in dew nor snow bleaching is there any appreciable wear and tear.

WAYS OF SERVING BANANAS.

Delicious Dishes May Be Made with Popular Fruit.

Bananas, chilled on ice, with cream and brodiaid fruit, make a good dish. Bananas with other sliced fruits, with cherries, nuts or currants or sandwiched between cakes are a feast indeed. To try baked bananas, select good fruit. Open one end of yellow fruit and peel off the skin, then split the fruit in halves lengthwise.
Place in buttered pan, and cover with sugar, and for each banana allow one teaspoonful of lemon juice. As soon as the juice and sugar are hot, heat with a quarter cup of hot water and cook until the fruit looks soft and transparent. Slip out on a dish and cover with whipped cream and sugar.
In which place cooked cherries and strawberries. This is a good way to use berries that are too soft to serve in the usual way. Instead of the jelly, the sauce can be made of crushed berries and cherries. Let the bananas and sauce become cold before serving.

Lemon Cream Pie.

For one large pie, beat the yolks of two eggs until light, add lemon juice and grate of one large lemon; add this to yolks. Take two cups sugar, mix with two tablespoonsful of cornstarch; add this to yolks and lemon and beat to a cream. Add two cups boiling water, slowly at first, then all at once. Boil for five minutes, stirring constantly, so as not to stick or burn.
When cool pour into a custard previously baked and cover with a meringue.
Take whites of the two eggs, beat a few strokes before putting in a tablespoonful of powdered sugar. Beat this stiff and spread first a thin layer, then the lemon custard. Brown for a moment in a hot oven.

Grease from Black Goods.

To remove grease from black goods use warm water and soap. Should the material be light in color, gasoline or benzine will be better. Use the gasoline in the open air and dry afterward with a clean piece of the same material.

Benzine and gasoline are both inflammable. If used in contact with heat or flame, salt dissolved in alcohol is often found to be a good thing to remove grease spots from cloth.

Wash Freckles for Girls.

Wash freckles are softer and prettier without makeup, especially for a young girl. White is by far the most economical thing to get, as it does not fade and always looks well after laundering. You might select a drilling, Indian head linen, madras or any other white fabric that has some body. If you prefer a colored fabric, you would be the most becoming. Linen or cham-bray always looks well. Pretty little white collars and cuffs are preferable to ruching.

Tasty Potpie.

One pound of shoulder of lamb or beef cut up into two-inch squares, four potatoes sliced thin as for frying, one onion cut up pretty fine, in a deep dish place first a layer of meat, salt, and pepper. Over this drop one-half of the onion, then a layer of potatoes.
Repeat, having a good thick layer of potatoes on top to brown nicely.
Bake three hours in a rather slow oven.

Mock Crab Sandwiches.

Cream two tablespoonsful of butter;
add one-quarter of a cup of grated cheese; one-quarter teaspoonful each of salt, mustard and paprika; a sweet red pepper not so strong as cayenne; this gives it a pretty pink color. Divide the mixture into spoonfuls of anchovy paste in one teaspoonful of vinegar; add to the rest. Spread on thin slices of bread.

Lunch Patties.

One pound of sausage meat, half that quantity of mashed potatoes, one small onion and two eggs. First fry the sausage; then beat the eggs, chop the onion, mash the potatoes with a little milk; mix thoroughly together and all the shreds; then pour over the hot enough to cook the eggs; bake in a quick oven until a good brown;
then serve hot.

Radish and Cucumber Salad.

Arrange on a bed of carefully washed watercress alternate layers of thin slices of the radish, sliced radish and cucumbers, pouring over all a French dressing. The combination of the pretty red and two shades of green appeals to the eye, while the crispness and spiciness of the whole satisfies the palate.

Dutch Steak.

Break meat into frying pan and fry out fat. Season steak; roll in flour; brown both sides and cover with hot water. Into this slice two onions.
Turn the low and cook gently for two hours, when there will be a thick deliciously seasoned and with plenty of gravy.

Relieving Touch of Lice.

Many colored linens are made in the summer effort to give the wearing touch of lingerie or lace near the face in yoke or underblouse.

Corn Oysters.

One pint of corn pulp; mix with one-half cupful of sweet cream, one well-beaten egg, one-half teaspoonful of one-quarter teaspoonful pepper and one scant cup of flour. Mix well and drop by small spoonfuls in equal parts hot lard and butter. Fry on both sides until nicely browned.

Grape Jelly.

Equal parts of grape juice and apple juice. Boil 20 minutes, add for each pint one pound of granulated sugar and boil five minutes more.

A TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

How a Veteran Was Saved the Amputation of a Limb.

His Frank Doremus, veteran, of Roosevelt Ave., Hingham, Ind., says: "I had been showing symptoms of kidney trouble from the time I was tired out of the army, but in all my life I never suffered as in 1897. Headaches, dizziness and sleeplessness, first, and then dropsy, I was weak and helpless, having run down from 180 to 125 pounds. I was having terrible pain in the kidneys, and the secretions passed almost involuntarily. My left leg swelled until it was 34 inches around, and the doctor tapped it night and morning until I could no longer stand it, and then he advised amputation. I refused, and began using Doan's Kidney Pills.
The swelling subsided gradually, the urine became natural and all my pains and aches disappeared. I have been well now for nine years since using Doan's Kidney Pills.

Sheer white goods, in fact, any fine wash goods when new, owe much of their attractiveness to the way they are laundered, this being done in a manner to enhance their textile beauty. Home laundering would be equally satisfactory if proper attention was given to starching, the first essential step in the process, which is sufficient enough to stiffen, without thickening the goods. Try Duffner Starch and you will be pleasantly surprised at the improved appearance of your work.

No, Not As a Rule.

George P. Angell, Boston's brilliant and powerful defender of animals from cruelty, was talking about nature faking.
"My friend, Will Long is no nature faker," he said, "but admit that many of our myriad nature writers are.
These men's idea of a little boy should resemble that of a little boy I know."

"The boy's teacher said from her desk one afternoon:
"I want every pupil who has never told a lie to hold up his right hand."
"There was a doubtful pause. Two or three hands were raised. Then my little friend piped out:
"Teacher, is it a lie if nobody finds it out?"

Depends on the Dogs.

Asa Goddard, of the American Automobile association, was recounting in Worcester some of his touring adventures.
"On a summer morning," he said,
"the approach of a great flock of sheep obliged me to pull off the narrow country road. I pulled my car, and watched with interest the passage of the sheep, the intelligent dogs and the shepherd."

"I had a short talk with the sheep herd about his odd and difficult trade."
"Look here, I said, 'what do you do, driving sheep like this on a narrow road, when you meet another flock coming in the opposite direction?'"

"Well," said the shepherd, "ye just drive straight on, both of ye, and the one that has the best dogs gets the most sheep."

AMONG CRANBERRY MEN.

CRANBERRY EXPERIMENT STATION NOTES.

By C. B. Hardenberg and G. L. Mulde

Cranberry Experiment Station Notes.

The blackhead fireworm, second brood, are now about full grown, and part of them have pupated. This second brood is showing a decided tendency to pupate underground, making an earthen cocoon like that of the fruitworm, but many also can be found to have formed their cocoon between the spun up leaves of one or more uprights, or even inside of a berry. At the present time the fireworm, both blackhead and yellowhead, are doing the principal damage to the berries in this neighborhood, while the fruitworm is just getting a good start. In about a week from now, the first blackhead miller will appear, they will lay eggs on the underside of the leaves, and then disperse for the season. The eggs will remain on the vines all winter and do not hatch until spring. The yellowheads have still another brood coming this year, but this will do its work mostly after picking time the damage of this brood to the crop is generally slight, although there is some damage this year that it may prove troublesome, because the berries are growing slowly and will not ripen as early as usual.

The fruitworm is found in all stages of development from egg until full grown larvae and even cocoon. The miller seems to have disappeared but here and there some eggs are still found. These eggs are the hard shell things to notice, and can only be found by examining carefully one berry after another with a lens. They are very transparent, and they can only be discovered by the light being reflected from their surface. They can hardly be said to have a certain shape, as they are so soft as to adopt themselves easily to any inequality of surface. They may be perfectly round, or oval, if deposited there, but if laid in a corner of the sepals, they may have any shape, determined by their position strangely enough, although the egg is laid at the apex end of the berry, the hole of entrance is generally formed at the stem end, and appears as a minute white spot, next to the stem. Upon opening such a berry we will find a narrow passage connecting the hole with the seed chamber, and if the larvae is newly hatched, it will be found inside of one of the seeds. The seeds are always the first to be eaten and often after these are gone does the worm attack the meat of the berry.

But the yellowheaded vineworm, blackhead vineworm and fruitworm are not by any means the only insects which do injury to the cranberry. Although we in Wisconsin do not seem to have been visited by the "false army worm," which has done considerable damage in the East, we have had another one to take its place (which we at first erroneously call the false army worm) which was practically unknown in the East as a cranberry feeder. These different army worms have been found, and we have no reason to doubt that the majority of the millers of ground on the bog, will prove to be cranberry feeders. Although about a dozen millers have been bred whose larvae are feeding on the cranberry leaf or berry, or the stem, while the terminal bud is destroyed by a little fly larva, the cranberry tip worm. Even the blossom is not exempt from insect attack for a small snout-beetle (as yet undetermined) has been found to injure the bud. We noticed some time ago that a good many buds did not develop berries. This was at first attributed to blight or rot, but upon more careful examination it was found that the bud had dropped off without ever having opened into a blossom. Inside of these blossoms was found a small weevil or snout-beetle or its larva or pupa. From the appearance of the bud it seems that the parent weevil bored a hole in the bud through one of the petals and deposited an egg therein. The hatching grub eats the inside of the bud and completes its entire development in there. The bud never opens and in most cases drops off, but this is not without exception.

The also etchings (referred to as "3 inch etchings" by a typographical error in an earlier issue) will be obtained for periods of one half month.
